Please read the information below on what to prepare for your Round 2 Audition Workshop.

Important information about your audition workshop:
All applicants are asked to prepare 2 speeches for their recall audition – see the speeches section below for further information. When thinking about what to prepare, you may find the information on our Frequently Asked Questions page here helpful.

Please be accurate with the lines and make sure you understand and research the text - You should make sure you know what you are saying and why you are saying it.

We expect you to have fully prepared and rehearsed this text. You will be re-directed by our staff and will need to be able to creatively respond to the notes you will receive on the day. These notes should also be considered as feedback on your audition as we do not give feedback after audition.

Please note that although we ask you to be prepare the speeches, you may not be asked to perform them at your audition workshop if we do not feel that we need to see them.

Your day may involve sight reading, if you would prefer your text on coloured paper, please let the tutor know at the beginning of the workshop.

All recalls may also involve a physical session, so please dress appropriately.

Trigger warnings:
If possible, please avoid using a speech that contains controversial language. If your chosen speech does contain material of a highly sensitive nature that may be triggering for some individuals, please let the tutor know at the beginning of your session. Some examples of triggers are sexual assault; abuse; hateful language directed at specific groups; death or dying; suicide; self harm; gender discrimination. If you are not sure whether your speech contains a trigger, please ask the tutor at the start of your session.

Tutors will let applicants know of any speeches that they have been told may contain a trigger. If you feel that you would not feel comfortable watching the audition, you will be given the opportunity to exit the room during the performance.

Speeches to prepare:
Please check the requirements below for your preferred course as entered on your East 15 application form.

If you have also selected an additional choice of course, please prepare speeches for both courses. If the requirements are the same for both courses, you only need to prepare one set of speeches – you do not have to prepare 2 sets of different speeches. For example, if you have BA Acting as your first preference and BA Acting & Contemporary Theatre as your additional choice, you should prepare a classical speech from the speech list, a contemporary speech and a self-devised piece.

If you have been recalled for a specific course, it will say this on your audition invitation. If no course is mentioned, you should follow the instructions for the course(s) you entered on your East 15 application form. At audition we will consider you for all our courses, taking in consideration your course preferences. You could, therefore, be asked to audition on the day for a course that you have not applied for but is one that our tutors feel may best suit your skills.

BA Acting:
If you have entered BA Acting as your preferred course on your East 15 application, please prepare two speeches, no longer than 90 seconds:

- A classical speech from the list on the pages 3 to 9 of this document. It is important that you are fully prepared and have rehearsed this speech. If you are not prepared and we feel that we cannot work through the text with you on the day, this part of the audition may be stopped by the tutor, and you will not have a further chance to do this speech.
➢ A speech from a contemporary (written in the 20th or 21st century) play or film/TV drama. We would prefer this to be different to the speech in your video audition.

  - A speech from a contemporary (written in the 20th or 21st century) play or film/TV drama.

  We would prefer the above speeches to be different to the ones in your video audition.

- In addition to the 2 speeches above, please prepare a piece of your own original work. This can be, for example, a song or music composition, dance or physical routine, poem or any piece of writing, short film, painting, etc.

BA Acting & Community Theatre:

- A classical speech (Shakespeare or another Elizabethan playwright)
- A speech from a contemporary (written in the 20th or 21st century) play or film/TV drama.

  We would prefer the above speeches to be different to the ones in your video audition.
BA Acting - Classical speech choices:

Please choose any ONE of the following 9 speeches – the choice is up to you and what you feel comfortable performing.

You may choose a character of any gender identification.

Ensure that you are word perfect with the lines and that you understand and research the text. You should be able to show that you know what you are saying and why you are saying it as you will be re-directed by our staff and will need to be able to creatively respond to the notes you will receive on the day.

If we feel that you have not rehearsed your speech and/or do not fully understand the character you are playing, the tutor may stop the audition. You will not have the opportunity to perform this speech again for BA Acting. You will continue with the audition workshop and will be considered for our other courses.

Please note that although we ask you to be prepare the additional speeches, you may not be asked to perform them at your audition workshop if we do not feel that we need to see them. In addition, you may be redirected to perform your speeches in a different way as part of the workshop.

1. TITUS ANDRONICUS

ACT 4 SC 1
AARON

That coddling spirit had they from their mother,
As sure a card as ever won the set;
That bloody mind, I think, they learn'd of me,
As true a dog as ever fought at head.
Well, let my deeds be witness of my worth.
I train'd thy brethren to that guileful hole
Where the dead corpse of Bassianus lay:
I wrote the letter that thy father found
And hid the gold within the letter mention'd,
Confederate with the queen and her two sons:
And what not done, that thou hast cause to rue,
Wherein I had no stroke of mischief in it?
I play'd the cheater for thy father's hand,
And, when I had it, drew myself apart
And almost broke my heart with extreme laughter:
I pry'd me through the crevice of a wall
When, for his hand, he had his two sons' heads;
Beheld his tears, and laugh'd so heartily,
That both mine eyes were rainy like to his:
And when I told the empress of this sport,
She swooned almost at my pleasing tale,
And for my tidings gave me twenty kisses.

2. KING JOHN

ACT 4 SC 1
ARTHUR

Have you the heart? When your head did but ache,
I knit my handercher about your brows,
The best I had, a princess wrought it me,
And I did never ask it you again;
And with my hand at midnight held your head,
And like the watchful minutes to the hour,
Still and anon cheer'd up the heavy time,
Saying, 'What lack you?' and 'Where lies your grief?'
Or 'What good love may I perform for you?'
Many a poor man's son would have lien still
And ne'er have spoke a loving word to you;
But you at your sick service had a prince.
Nay, you may think my love was crafty love
And call it cunning: do, an if you will:
If heaven be pleased that you must use me ill,
Why then you must. Will you put out mine eyes?
These eyes that never did nor never shall
So much as frown on you.

3. HENRY V
ACT 3 SC 2
BOY

As young as I am, I have observed these three swashers. I am boy to them all three, but all they three, though they would serve me, could not be man to me. For indeed three such antics do not amount to a man: for Bardolph, he is white-livered and red-faced, by the means whereof he faces it out but fights not; for Pistol, he hath a killing tongue and a quiet sword, by the means whereof he breaks words and keeps whole weapons; for Nym, he hath heard that men of few words are the best men, and therefore he scorns to say his prayers, lest he should be thought a coward, but his few bad words are matched with as few good deeds, for he never broke any man's head but his own, and that was against a post when he was drunk. They will steal anything and call it purchase. Bardolph stole a lute case, bore it twelve leagues, and sold it for three halfpence.
Nym and Bardolph are sworn brothers in filching, and in Calais they stole a fire shovel. I knew by that piece of service the men would carry coals. They would have me as familiar with men's pockets as their gloves or their handkerchers, which makes much against my manhood, if I should take from another's pocket to put into mine, for it is plain pocketing up of wrongs. I must leave them and seek some better service. Their villainy goes against my weak stomach, and therefore I must cast it up.

4. LOVE'S LABOUR LOST
ACT 4 SC 2
BOYET

Under the cool shade of a sycamore,
I thought to close mine eyes some half an hour.
When, lo, to interrupt my purposed rest,
Toward that shade I might behold addressed
The King and his companions. Warily
I stole into a neighbor thicket by,
And overheard what you shall overhear:
That, by and by, disguised, (they) will be here.
Their herald is a pretty knavish page
That well by heart hath conned his embassage.
Action and accent did they teach him there:
“Thus must thou speak,” and “thus thy body bear.”
And ever and anon they made a doubt
Presence majestical would put him out;
“For,” quoth the King, “an angel shalt thou see;
Yet fear not thou, but speak audaciously.”
The boy replied “An angel is not evil.
I should have feared her had she been a devil”.

5. HAMLET

…. I have of late, but wherefore I know not, lost all my mirth, forgone all custom of exercises; and, indeed, it goes so heavily with my disposition that this goodly frame the earth, seems to me a sterile promontory, this most excellent canopy the air, look you, this brave o'erhanging firmament, this majestic roof fretted with golden fire, why it appeareth nothing to me but a foul and pestilent congregation of vapours.
What piece of work is a man! how noble in reason! how infinite in faculties! in form and moving how express and admirable! in action; how like an angel! in apprehension how like a god! The beauty of the world! the paragon of animals! And yet, to me what is this quintessence of dust? Man delights not me: no, nor women neither, though by your smiling you seem to say so.
6. ALL WELL...
HELEN

kneeling Then I confess
Here on my knee before high heaven and you
That before you and next unto high heaven
I love your son.
My friends were poor but honest; so 's my love.
Be not offended, for it hurts not him
That he is loved of me. I follow him not
By any token of presumptuous suit,
Nor would I have him till I do deserve him,
Yet never know how that desert should be.
I know I love in vain, strive against hope,
Yet in this captious and intenible sieve
I still pour in the waters of my love
And lack not to lose still. Thus, Indian-like,
Religious in mine error, I adore
The sun that looks upon his worshipper
But knows of him no more. My dearest madam,
Let not your hate encounter with my love
For loving where you do; but if yourself,
Whose agèd honor cites a virtuous youth,
Did ever in so true a flame of liking
Wish chastely and love dearly, that your Dian
Was both herself and Love, O then give pity
To her whose state is such that cannot choose
But lend and give where she is sure to lose;
That seeks not to find that her search implies,
But riddle-like lives sweetly where she dies.

6. HENRY VI PART 1
ACT 1-2
PUCELLE

Dauphin, I am by birth a shepherd’s daughter,
My wit untrained in any kind of art. Heaven and Our Lady gracious hath it pleased
To shine on my contemptible estate.
Lo, whilst I waited on my tender lambs,
And to sun’s parching heat displayed my cheeks,
God’s Mother deignèd to appear to me,
And in a vision full of majesty
Willed me to leave my base vocation
And free my country from calamity.
Her aid she promised and assured success.
In complete glory she revealed herself; And whereas I was black and swart before,
With those clear rays which she infused on me
That beauty am I blest with, which you may see.
Ask me what question thou canst possible,
And I will answer unpremeditated.
My courage try by combat, if thou dar’st,
And thou shalt find that I exceed my sex.
Resolve on this: thou shalt be fortunate
If thou receive me for thy warlike mate.

7. KING JOHN
ACT 5 SC 2
LEWIS

Your grace shall pardon me, I will not back:
I am too high-born to be propertied,
To be a secondary at control, Or useful serving-man and instrument,
To any sovereign state throughout the world.
Your breath first kindled the dead coal of wars
Between this chastised kingdom and myself,
And brought in matter that should feed this fire;
And now 'tis far too huge to be blown out
With that same weak wind which enkindled it.
You taught me how to know the face of right,
Acquainted me with interest to this land,
Yea, thrust this enterprise into my heart; And come ye now to tell me John hath made
His peace with Rome? What is that peace to me?
I, by the honour of my marriage-bed,
After young Arthur, claim this land for mine;

8. OTHELLO
Act 4 SC 2
OTHELLO

It is the cause, it is the cause, my soul,
Let me not name it to you, you chaste stars!
It is the cause. Yet I’ll not shed her blood;
Nor scar that whiter skin of hers than snow,
And smooth as monumental alabaster.
Yet she must die, else she’ll betray more men.
Put out the light, and then put out the light:
If I quench thee, thou flaming minister,
I can again thy former light restore,
Should I repent me: but once put out thy light,
Thou cunning’st pattern of excelling nature,
I know not where is that Promethean heat
That can thy light relume. When I have pluck’d the rose,
I cannot give it vital growth again.
It must needs wither: I’ll smell it on the tree.
Ah balmy breath, that dost almost persuade Justice to break her sword! One more, one more.
Be thus when thou art dead, and I will kill thee,
And love thee after. One more, and this the last:
So sweet was ne’er so fatal. I must weep,
But they are cruel tears: this sorrow’s heavenly;
It strikes where it doth love. She wakes.

9. A MIDSUMMER NIGHT’S DREAM
ACT 2 SC 2
PUCK

Thou speakest aright:
I am that merry wanderer of the night.
I jest to Oberon, and make him smile
When I a fat and bean-fed horse beguile,
Neighing in likeness of a filly foal;
And sometime lurk I in a gossip's bowl
In very likeness of a roasted crab,
And, when she drinks, against her lips I bob,
And on her withered dewlap pour the ale.
The wisest aunt, telling the saddest tale,
Sometime for three-foot stool mistaketh me;
Then slip I from her bum, down topples she,
And 'tailor' cries, and falls into a cough;
And then the whole quire hold their hips and laugh,
And waxen in their mirth, and neeze, and swear
A merrier hour was never wasted there.
But room, fairy, here comes Oberon.

10. MERCHANT OF VENICE
ACT 1 SC 3
SHYLOCK

Signior Antonio, many a time and oft
In the Rialto you have rated me
About my moneys and my usances:
Still have I borne it with a patient shrug,
For sufferance is the badge of all our tribe.
You call me misbeliever, cut-throat dog,
And spit upon my Jewish gaberdtine,
And all for use of that which is mine own.
Well then, it now appears you need my help:
Go to, then; you come to me, and you say
‘Shylock, we would have moneys:’ you say so;
You, that did void your rheum upon my beard
And foot me as you spurn a stranger cur
Over your threshold: moneys is your suit
What should I say to you? Should I not say
‘Hath a dog money? is it possible
A cur can lend three thousand ducats?’ Or Shall I bend low and in a bondman’s key,
With bated breath and whispering humbleness, Say this;
‘Fair sir, you spit on me on Wednesday last;
You spurn’d me such a day; another time
You call’d me dog; and for these courtesies
I’ll lend you thus much moneys’?

11. TROILUS AND CRESSIDA
ACT 5 SC1
THERSITES

With too much blood and too little brain, these two may run mad; but if with too much brain 50
and too little blood they do, I'll be a curer of madmen.
Here's Agamemnon, an honest fellow enough and one that loves quails, but he has not so much brain as earwax. And the goodly transformation of Jupiter there, his brother, the bull—the primitive 55 statue and oblique memorial of cuckolds, a thrifty shoeing-horn in a chain, hanging at his brother's leg—to what form but that he is should wit larded with malice and malice forced with wit turn him to? To an ass were nothing; he is both 60 ass and ox. To an ox were nothing; he is both ox and ass. To be a dog, a mule, a cat, a fitchew, a toad, a lizard, an owl, a puttock, or a herring without a roe, I would not care; but to be Menelaus! I would conspire against destiny. Ask me not what I 65 would be, if I were not Thersites, for I care not to be the louse of a lazar so I were not Menelaus.

Enter Hector, Troilus, Ajax, Agamemnon, Ulysses,
Nestor, Menelaus, and Diomedes, with lights.

Heyday! Sprites and fires!
